NEW NONPROFIT RIVER VALLEY DISTRICT FOR THE ARTS HAS GREAT PLANS FOR THE FUTURE

River Valley District for the Arts is a new nonprofit organization whose mission is to be the voice and the representative of the arts and artists of our community and to be a beacon of artistic endeavor for the Iowa River Valley. They will strive to do this by developing creative programs and by strengthening their ties to our growing artistic community. One of their goals includes providing scholarships to art students. The organization is made up of seven volunteer board members who have backgrounds in different types of art. They are located out of The Red Dog Black Dog Studio around the town square for the time being. They will be having a kick-off event on October 22nd, 2022.
